DAILY 1 HOUR SCENIC HARBOUR CRUISE

The perfect way to see the sights of Plymouth, our one-hour scenic and naval harbour cruise departs daily from The Barbican Landing Stage. Our knowledgeable skippers provide an informative commentary, as we sail across Plymouth Sound flanked by the beautiful Devon and Cornish coast. We pass famous landmarks including, Plymouth Hoe and Drake's Island, heading for the river Tamar where the mighty warships and nuclear submarines await!

HALF DAY TAMAR VALLEY CRUISE TO CALSTOCK

This is a truly idyllic five-hour cruise, exploring the stunning scenery of the Tamar Valley by boat. We set sail across Plymouth Sound and journey up the River Tamar to Calstock, with a one hour stop-over – chance to stretch your legs & walk around the quaint picturesque Cornish village.

Leaving the busy city behind we pass the Royal Naval Dockyard and Brunel's famous bridge, taking in the breath-taking sights of the Tamar Valley, passing Cargreen, Wier Quay, Pentille, Holton and Cotehele.

BOARD OUR FOOT FERRIES FOR A SHORT SCENIC JOURNEY FROM PLYMOUTH TO CORNWALL

BARBICAN, ROYAL WILLIAM YARD & MOUNT EDGCUMBE FERRY

Hop on and off our ferry service, linking three iconic destinations on the water –

Barbican – laced with quaint cobblestone lanes and is a beautiful waterfront location full of history offering a diverse range of shops, pubs and restaurants.

Royal William Yard – Experience the restaurants, bars and boutique shopping at Royal William Yard.

Cremyll Quay – The Rame Peninsula, known as, Cornwall's forgotten corner. A beautiful part of the South West, with the historic house and acres of stunning picturesque grounds of Mount Edgumbe.

CAWSAND FERRY

A wonderful boat trip in itself, the half hour Cawsand ferry journey takes you back in time to the quaint fishing and smuggling villages of Cawsand and Kingsand, with secluded beaches, spectacular walks and magnificent pubs, restaurants, shops and cafes..

CREMYLL FERRY

Take a trip on our historic foot ferry from Stonehouse to The Rame Peninsula, known as, Cornwall's forgotten corner. Loved for centuries by all who have travelled on her, one of Plymouth's true gems and provides a gateway to discover this beautiful part of the South West. Our eight-minute ferry journey crosses the River Tamar, against the spectacular backdrop of Royal William Yard and Plymouth Sound.

SALTASH FERRY

This scenic ferry route connects shops, cinema, and eateries centred around vibrant Royal William Yard Marina, with the thriving Cornish town of Saltash. Home of Isambard Kingdom Brunel's spectacular Royal Albert Bridge, the streets of Saltash are lined with independent shops, pubs, restaurants, and cafes. This beautiful ferry ride takes you along the River Tamar to where Saltash is situated on the west bank, which meanders through the Tamar Valley, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

DRAKES ISLAND FERRY

Sail with us onboard the Drake's Island Ferry to join a guided tour of the Island. From first records of a chapel on the Island in 1135, to its role as a strategic defensive point during the reign of Charles II to World War 2 – uncover the mystery, history, wildlife and panoramic views as you step foot on the jewel of Plymouth Sound.

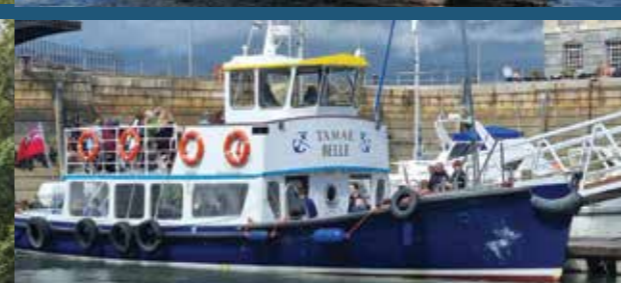

CRUISE & MOUNT EDGCUMBE HOUSE COMBINATION TICKET

Available exclusively for coach tour operators and group bookings, our Scenic Harbour Cruise also provides an option for passengers to depart early and visit the village of Cremyll and Mount Edgcumbe House & Country Park.

Take a walk through history as you explore the ancestral home of the Earls of Mount Edgcumbe on a private tour. Decorated in a classical style and home to some of the treasures collected by the family over the centuries, the house is a haven of calm for visitors to explore the past. One of the region's most popular tourist destinations.

Surrounded by formal gardens and set in a Grade I listed landscape, the country park covers 865 acres of the Rame Peninsula in South East Cornwall. The Edgcumbe family can trace their ancestry back over 600 years. In 1515 King Henry VIII issued a license to impark the lands and over 500 years later descendants of the original herds of fallow deer can be seen roaming in the Deer Park.

CRUISE LINER TENDERING & CREW TRANSFER

With extensive experience Plymouth Boat Trips, can also provide transportation services for visiting Cruise Ships whilst anchored within Plymouth port. Maintaining exceptional service levels our skilled staff can assist all Tendering and Crew Transfer requests.

We have shore side tenders available which can operate between two landing areas Millbay Docks or The Barbican, to suit the ships requirements for both their independents and excursion customers.

Delivering customers direct to the picturesque waterside location of the Barbican and Sutton Harbour – the true heart of the Ocean City's heritage, ensuring both crew and customers have the best experience whilst here.

All vessels are fully inspected, and approved by the MCA. For further information contact our expert team.
